SERVICE TERMS & PROPERTY OWNER ACKNOWLEDGMENT

In accordance with adopted regulations of the District, users must give two days notice in writing when requesting a disconnection of service. The user will be held responsible for services rendered until disconnection notice is received. Monthly bills are payable within 30 days of mailing and subject to disconnect of service after 60 days. Payment in full plus a reconnection charge is required on any account disconnect for non-payment.

A back-flow device may be required on any or all water services. The cost of the back-flow device shall be borne by the water user, and/or the owner of the property, along with the costs for annual testing of the back-flow device, its replacement and repair.

I, _____, as the property owner agree that if the applicant, or subsequent applicants, fail to make payments in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Long Prairie Water District, I understand and agree that the water bill shall become a charge to me, the owner of the property, and shall become a lien upon the real property.
